

Plant for organic wastes Kettering, England (GBR)

Project data

Commissioning: 2010
Input materials: 40,000t including commercial and industrial food wastes from the catering, retail and food manufacture industries as well as material from local authority domestic food waste collections.

Technical data

Digester: 2x 3,000m³
Storage Tank: 5,000m³
Installed Capacity: 1.5 MW_e in total

Characteristics

WELTEC BIOPOWER delivered the entire technological equipment to the project including the de packaging, shredding and pasteurisation technologies.

The efficient operation and the overall concept of the biogas plant convinced the Anaerobic Digestion and Biogas Association (ADBA) of the UK to award the Weltec client „Best AD Project“ at their 2012 awards.

Organic energy worldwide